Manage Preparers

A new role has been created to better manage what access preparers have in Web Client. Prior to the 2014 release preparers did not have access to create new plans and edit certain information directly on Web Client. As we migrate additional functionality to Web Client, access that previously wasn't available to users may now be. A new role – "Preparer Read-only" has been created to limit access available on Web Client. Below is a description of the roles that can be defined for each preparer by the Organization Admin.

Standard – This role will give rights to the preparer, such as viewing forms, editing the forms, publishing, enable filing, e-filing, managing clients, and running reports. This role will also provide the ability for the preparer to add new plans on Web Client.

Organization Admin – This role gives the same rights to the preparer as the Standard role, as well as managing preparers and Organization Settings.

Preparer Read-only – This role ONLY allows the preparer to view the forms, enable filing, send notifications, view all organization plans(if enabled), manage clients and change the role of the client. However, this role will not allow the preparer to add plans, add forms, edit forms, delete forms, publish/republish or unpublish plans, change the status to completed, e-file or delete clients.
