3. AGREEMENT

FIS is the only sponsor of the IDP-formatted volume submitter plan and FIS Business Systems LLC appears on IRS advisory letter (i.e. the IRS approval letter). By selecting each of the following you are agreeing to the terms of the use of this FIS sponsored volume submitter plan. See the online commentary for more details. WARNING: Failure to complete these selections can result in your checklist not being saved correctly.

- a. The plan being prepared is solely for the use of the employer indicated in the plan (the "adopting employer") as well as any participating employers to such plan. The use of the plan for any other employers is strictly prohibited. FIS will retain the adopting employer information in order to comply with the IRS requirement of maintaining a list of adopting employers.
- b. You agree, on behalf of FIS, to notify the adopting employer of any IRS required updates or restatements. You agree to indemnify and hold FIS harmless should the adopting employer miss any required amendments or restatements. You also agree to provide the employer with a copy of the entire plan and the IRS advisory letter.
- c. FIS will notify you of, and provide, any required updates in accordance with FIS's usual business practices (generally email notification and/or Pension Technical Updates). You agree to monitor any legislative and regulatory developments that may affect the plan and agree to hold FIS harmless in the event FIS does not provide you with the notification of any required amendments.
- d. You agree to comply with any applicable limitations ("parameters") that are expressed on the hard-copy checklist manual as a "Note" (each of which has been copied to the online commentary as an "IRS Note"). Failure to comply with a specific admonition in an IRS Note could be considered a modification to preapproved language.
